

The View from the Pyramids-

A Glorious Past and a Challenging Future

A workshop for teachers, students, and anyone interested in the Middle East.

Saturday October 24, 2009

9:00 am - 3:00 pm at the Utah Museum of Fine Arts, University of Utah Campus

The University of Utah's Middle East Center Outreach Program and the Utah Museum of Fine Arts are proud to sponsor a workshop that will look at the country of Egypt: its culture and customs, history and legacy. Teachers, high school and middle school students (with or without their parents) and anyone else interested in learning more about this fascinating topic are invited to attend.

The workshop is free and open to the public

Topics will include the Art of the Pharaohs, Egyptian Culture through its Films, Mummies and Movies, a Gallery Walk and presentation of the "Egypt Then and Now Box"; along with a hands-on art project.

Choose from small group sessions that incorporate interactive learning and innovative teaching strategies. Hands-on art projects will give students and teachers an opportunity to "create" something that demonstrates the richness of Middle East and Egyptian culture. Packets containing information and lesson plans will be provided. Teachers are invited to encourage high school students to attend. Relicensure credit is available.

Come take a look at the Museum's collection of Middle Eastern art and the many resources in the Museum's Education Department.

For Teachers!

The Egypt Then and Now Box

Can be checked out for use in the classroom. This box contains everything needed to teach about Egypt- including lesson plans, art objects, pictures, games, books, and realia.

This great resource can be checked out after the workshop by contacting the Utah Museum of Fine Arts at 801-581-3580.

There is no charge for registration but it is required as space is limited. To register, call 801-581-5003 or send the registration form on the back of this flyer to:

Middle East Center Outreach Program
260 South Central Campus Drive, RM 153, SLC UT 84112

Don't forget to order your beautifully designed T-Shirt!

Please send a check along with the registration form to the Middle East Center. Shirts will be available at the workshop.

Deadline for T-Shirt Payment is October 9, 2009

Come learn about Egypt through its food! A Middle Eastern Buffet Lunch will be available. Lunches can be purchased (cash or check only) for $10.00 during the workshop registration.

There is NO charge for registration—it is important to register early to make sure that there is space available. Traditionally, this workshop has “sold out” early! Teachers will be provided with resource materials prepared to help them integrate information about Egypt into their curriculum.
